

Female Junior Athlete of the Year: Rachael Edwards

The award for 2008 Saskatchewan Female Junior Triathlete of the Year is Rachael Edwards. Rachael comes from a swimming and track background, holding some provincial track records in the province. She started 2008 off with the PATCO race in Mexico where she finished 8th out of 45 participants in ocean waves none of us would have wanted to tackle. She continued to improve in her times racing in Icebreaker, Spin Off Spadina, Pinawa, Gatineau, P.E.I & Kelowna. Her highlights for 2008 include a 2nd place finish at the PEI Canada Games test race, a 5th place finish at Nationals. Rachael is ranked in 2nd place in the Tech Cominco Junior National Race Series. She is currently training at the Western Regional High Performance Triathlon training centre in Winnipeg.

Congratulations Rachael.
